

Are you a creative business based in the Mid and East Antrim Area?

Applications are currently being invited from individuals across the Mid and East Antrim Area who would like to start and grow their Creative Business!

Ballymena Business Centre is offering 10 makers from the arts and craft sector, the opportunity to market and display their hand crafted products in Ballymena Town Centre.

For more information on this exciting opportunity, visit the Ballymena Business website, which includes eligibility information and an application form.

The closing date for this initiative is Friday 28th July.

Ballymena Means 'Business of the Week' Feature!

How would you like your business to be named 'Business of the Week' on the Ballymena Means Facebook page, with a potential reach to over 2000 people? If this is something that interests you, then we'd love to hear from you!

To be in with the chance of being named Ballymena's 'Business of the Week', please answer these short questions and provide a photo of your business / current offer:

- Name of Business

- Location of Business
- Service you provide
- Do you have any special offers running at the minute?
- If someone was to visit your shop / business, what would they expect?
- What's your favourite street in Ballymena and why?
- What does Ballymena Mean to you?

Please email your completed answers and photo to amy@naked-pr.com. Businesses will appear on a weekly basis, first come first served.

Telephone Fraud Warning From PSNI

Please be aware of persons purporting to be from HMRC contacting you by phone and demanding money, in the form of iTunes vouchers, to prevent arrest for alleged debt.

Please inform your friends and family, particularly older family members and friends as well as work colleagues, of these incidents and report any similar incident to the PSNI by calling 101.

In the event of a member of the public purchasing large quantities of iTunes vouchers from your store, please feel able to ask politely why they are being bought, and offer this advice to anyone who you think may be a possible victim of this type of fraud. #KeepingPeopleSafe
